

Paul Guerin has had a very successful career performing and presenting alongside some of the world's biggest names from Dame Edna to the Dalai Lama.

Having concluded a 2 year contract as the Entertainment Director for Australia Zoo Paul produced and directed daily 'Animal Presentations' as well as produced, directed and hosted major concerts and events including the Dalai Lama, Olivia Newton John, Jimmy Barnes, John Edward, The Veronicas, John Williamson, Thirsty Merc, Steady Eddie, Tripod and Bindi and the Crocmen.

Most notably, Paul has built a reputation for his ability as a live presenter, being chosen by major brands and events including the LG Australian Roadshow, International Boat Show, Australian Pet Expo, International Kids Expo, Warner Brothers, Cartoon network, Disney Channel and Foxtel.

Paul has presented and hosted every program, film and channel launch event (LIVE) over the last 3 years for Disney Channel Australia including High School Musical 1 and 2, Mickey Mouse Clubhouse, Camp Rock and Playhouse Disney Channel, which he was also a Producer on.

Paul featured in the 'Woolworths Carols in the Domain 2008' as Main Stage Host and co-host for 'So You Think You Can Dance' - (Bindi Irwin's 10th birthday) with Matt Lee.

Paul's previous performance credits include - ensemble cast member - musical theatre - 'We Will Rock You' Australia and Japan, 'Dusty' (Springfield) Australia, audience warm-up - Fox Sports Live (2002/04), Sydney 2000 Olympics/ Paralympics - assistant choreography/performer 'Kylie Minogue', Entertainment Supervisor Warner Brothers Movieworld and numerous appearances on Australian and American network TV including Macy's Day Parade 2007 (NBC), and Today USA (NBC).

Most recently, Paul was chosen as one of four finalists in Channel Nine Weekend Today's 'search for a weather presenter', outshining over 5000 entrants. Paul's audition piece and live to air presentation can be viewed at www.paulguerin.com along with his other career highlights. For a copy of Paul's Showreel please email paul@paulguerin.com

Paul currently resides in Sydney, Australia.